Press Release 27th July 2009

“Great Live Music throughout August at The Jazz Cafe”

The Jazz Café's commitment to providing great live music continues in August with a host of both local and nationwide bands confirmed. Reading's only venue that offers live music every weekend will play host to a variety of styles and genres that look to maintain the well established reputation that has been built up over 14 years, originally in the Old Market Place in Henley and now at The Madejski Stadium.

Kicking the month off on the 1st August is 6-piece funk/groove party band “All Wrapped Up”. Generating rave reviews everywhere they play, the band consists of extremely talented male and female vocalists, supported by saxophone, keyboards, guitar, bass, congas/percussion and drums.

The following Saturday 8th August sees “Groove Connection” return to The Jazz Café to deliver their soul, Rnb and disco, influenced by Stevie Wonder, Hendrix, Tina Turner, even some good old commitments style music.

“Soul Purpose's” rhythm and harmony occupy 15th August with the highly acclaimed Black Hat Band keeping the party going on the 22nd. A versatile and energetic band with a great set from down-tempo jazz to dance-floor shaking disco, funk and soul The Black Hat band are growing a reputation in Berkshire as one of the county's most exciting musical prospect.

Party Express, fronted by the extremely talented vocalist Liz Williams with five dynamic and experienced musicians, wrap a very busy month at The Jazz Café. Promotions and Events Manager Chris Gillett said: “It's shaping up to be a very exciting month here, with 5 great bands already confirmed. The venue compliments the great live music, with our sophisticated setting will deliver everything you need for a great night out.”
