

The Jazz Café
Press Release 28th September 2009

“Tony James (Reading 107fm) AND Funk Attack at The Jazz Café 2nd October!”

The Jazz Café are very excited to announce that Tony James from Reading 107fm Breakfast Club fame is joining forces with the formidable ‘Funk Attack’ team for a night of great music this Friday 2nd October.

Tony James rose to local fame as a DJ a few years ago....but now he’s back! Having been with Reading 107fm for a number of months now Tony has built a reputation and following through his unique early morning playlist. Now fully established as Reading’s number one DJ, he is bringing his talents to showcase at The Jazz Café live!

Joining him on the night will be Funk Attack, headed by the highly talented Louise Pollock. Louise is one of the most talented soul and funk singers on the UK music scene. Over the years, she’s had considerable success as a pop & dance vocalist and has teamed up with the likes of Jamiroquai and Jools Holland. Currently, Louise is regularly selling out top London nightspots. And now, she’s coming to The Jazz Café with her band Funk Attack!

Promotions and Events Manager for The Jazz Café Chris Gillett said: “With the radio station also being situated within the Madejski Complex we have been very aware of the buzz Tony James has been creating around the place. In having him alongside Louise Pollock we’re all set to host a lively and exciting evening.”

Director Dave Simpson added: “It’s hard to keep up with all the new and exciting events going on at The Jazz Café, but it’s been impossible to ignore the excitement Tony has caused about the place. The 2nd October promises to be a unique night of both great live music hosted by a highly acclaimed DJ”.
