MC – GEOFF NORCOTT

WKD Sports Shed Presenter (Nuts TV), Five O'clock Show with Richard Hammond (ITV1), Weapons of Mass Distraction (ITV1)

Everything Geoff Norcott does is under-pinned by enthusiasm, optimism and a sharp comic mind. Whether performing on the comedy circuit, where Geoff's abundance of energy combined with a storming mix of observations, impressions and satire has made him a hugely popular act both in the UK and abroad. Or on television, where Geoff recently went from co-presenter to become the main anchor on the WKD Shed Sports Show - his sharp one-liners becoming a popular feature of the nightly debates.

OPENING – STEVE GRIBBIN

Sunday Best (GMTV), The Warehouse (YTV), Saturday Night (Meridian), Comedy Roots (Sky)

Steve Gribbin is a rock'n'roll comedian in more ways than one. As one half of Skint Video, he was one of the hits of many a festival throughout the early 1990s and his treatment of Billy Bragg was little short of brilliant. They also starred on countless television programmes such as Saturday Live, radio such as The Mary Whitehouse Experience, and had their own show Songlines on Radio One. Since branching out on his own, professional Scouser Steve has continued to keep his feet firmly in both camps. A great musician, his songs are exactly that, combining razor sharp lyrics with annoyingly catchy tunes and devastatingly funny humour. Add to this some disarmingly accurate and off the wall observations and you have a real must-see act.

HEADLINE – RUDI LICKWOOD

MTV After-party Host 2008, Funny Business Judge 2008 (BBC3), Banged Up Stand-up (BBC3), The Stand-up Show (ITV)

As the top black comedian on the UK comedy circuit, Rudi Lickwood is far more than just a stand-up. Hosting the exclusive Brit Awards after-show party in Feb 2008 and awarded status in the 'Black 100+' awards for the greatest Black British Achievers, Rudi's on fire. With a super confident playful personality and oozing charisma, his infectious charm has made him a desirable commodity. Recognition of his achievements came in 2004 as Rudi received the prestigious honour of the BECA comedy award for outstanding contribution to comedy.
